the necessity of freedom of action by the commission as to individual items. The ways and means committee will take up the commission suestion very soon after congress reassembles. Some of its members oppose the commission iden, holding that it puts into being another body with high salaries and big general expense accounts on wor that should be done by the department of commerce and labor or other regu-lar departments, and that all that is necessary is an appropriation to con-tinue the existence of the present board through the Taft administra-
